

Executive Planning Support Services

Achieve Excellence, with state of the art planning - Support services from Lockhart Leadership:

Lockhart offers a customized range of support services to assess, plan and help implement Quality based Management Systems (QMS), utilizing the latest methods.

Business Review Engagement

- Typically 2-4 days on site

Lockhart will provide the appropriate specialists to assess your current business models and organization against proven, best practices.

The review delivers a formal report of your current status and preliminary recommendations of where the greatest opportunities for ROI currently exist.

From the firm foundation of a Business Review Engagement we are well positioned to develop a plan for maximizing the identified opportunities. We would also propose where our talents might compliment your internal staff, to help you achieve success.

Hoshin Kanri (Strategic Policy Implementation)

- The key deliverable is a Strategic Plan for your organization

Our expert facilitators will lead your Senior Management Team through a structured and effective exercise to document a Strategic Plan which considers short term issues while enabling long term visions for the company. The concepts and approaches for Hoshin planning are now included to help ensure a successfully implemented plan that is flexible and will survive change over the long term.

Our on-going monitoring and support helps to ensure the desired results are achieved as planned.

Implementation (Ops) Planning Support

- Targeted at the 1st and 2nd levels of management; those responsible for tactical plans to achieve specific results

This operational workshop with a short planning horizon is especially designed to address current operational issues and opportunities that line managers are experiencing. A proven methodology is used to capture, group and prioritize prior to developing concrete action plans.

Our on-going monitoring and support helps to ensure the desired results are achieved as planned.

Innovation Management

- Starting with an abbreviated version of our Innovate with CIB-SIM© Seminar, this 1 day work-shop for managers and/ or employees introduces innovation, to traditional quality roles, thereby accelerating organizational improvement.

This work-shop engages participants in applying current methods and techniques to activate the creative aspects of the brain. By applying these to the quality and management aspects of an organization, new breakthrough benefits can be realized from your on-going quality efforts.

Our on-going monitoring and support helps to ensure the desired results are achieved as planned.
